Republican State Convention.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION will be held at the Capitol, in Madison, on Wednesday, the 4th day of June A. D. 1856, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of electing six delegates for the State at Large, and three delegates for each Congressional district, to represent the State of Wisconsin in the Republican National Convention, to be held in in Philadelphia in June next; for the nomination of two candidates for Presidential Electors for the State at large; and for the thorough re organization of the Republican party in the state.

Each Assembly district in the State will be entitled to two delegates in said Convention.

In view of the importance of the approaching Presidential campaign, and of the necessity of a thorough organization, the committee would urge upon the friends of the cause throughout the State the propriety of taking immediate measures to secure a full representation in this Convention.

The Committee would respectfully suggest that the several Assembly District conventions for the appointment of delegates to the State Convention, be held at 2 o'clock P. M. on Saturday, the 24th day of May next.

WM. A. WHITE,
Chairman Republican State Central Committee.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

We give this morning a full account of the burning of the steamer Rock Island, and destruction of part of the bridge.

Another of Viola's gossiping letters is given to-day, as also a note from a correspondent at Green Bay, in relation to St. Martin—called out by a remark of Viola's.

It will be seen that Congress has acted favorably on the subject of enlarging the plan of our Custom House Buildings.

We give the particulars of an important railroad arrangement, which may result in sending considerable quantities of produce to this city, via the Lake Shore R. R.

See our advertising and local columns for various matters of interest.

There was no telegraph report on Saturday night, up to the time of our going to press.

The Government Buildings.

The Senate last week passed the joint resolution from the House, providing for an addition of 25 feet to the Post Office, Custom House and U. S. Court Rooms, and appropriating $37,000 therefor, additional to last years appropriation.—The vote in Senate stood as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Allen, Bright, Bradhead, Cass, Dodge, Durkee, Foot, Foster, Hale, Hunlan, James, Jones, of Iowa, Jones, of Tennessee, Pratt, Pugh, Seward, Stuart, Sumner, Wade, Weller, Wilson and Wright—22.

NAY—Messrs. Adams, Bayard, Briggs, Clay, Evans, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson, Slidell, Toombs, Toucey, and Yulee—12.

Dubuque, Iowa, and Milwaukee, Wisconsin, were included in the joint resolution. Now that the addition of 1 sum has been appropriated and the enlargement of our Government Buildings authorized, we do hope that the contractors will commence work and prosecute it vigorously. We can imagine no possible excuse for any further delay.

A $15 "LICK."—The News opens up the secret about this contribution to the Kansas fund. That amount was sent to the Sentinel office to be paid over to the fund. Instead of the money, a Sharpe's rifle was handed over to the Fund by that enthusiastic institution. The rifle cost $25. The contribution was $15. Only $20 were made by the operation.—Madison Argus.

Talse, as usual. "The Sentinel office" has not contributed a Sharpe's Rifle to the Kansas Fund, and the $15, sent to us by our friends at Danville, was acknowledged in the Sentinel and duly paid over to Mr. LATHAM, the Treasurer.—What lies will these two fabricators of the News and Argus start next?

WINNEBAGO COUNTY.—The Legislature at its late session, passed an act defining the boundaries of Winnebago County as follows:

Beginning at N. E. corner of town 20, range 17 E., thence south to the line between towns 16 and 17, thence west to the S. W. corner of town 17, thence north to the N. W. corner of town 20, north range 14, thence east to place of beginning.

Towns 25, 27, 28, and 29, of range 10 and 11, are added to Shawano Co.

The country north of the line dividing towns 29 and 30 is added to Oconto Co.

THE POLITICAL INSANE.—One day last week, says the Cleveland Leader, a fugitive slave passed through Columbus, who was almost as white as any person in that city. He was about thirteen years of age, and was sent off by his own mother—the daughter of her master!—to save him from being torn from her to be carried south for a market! A father holds his own daughter as a slave—this daughter has a son by her own half brother, and that son was to be sent to New Orleans for market, and sent, too, by his own grandfather. How far below the grade of human nature must that man be fallen, who loudly advocates such a monstrous institution!

THE ERIE "BORDER RUFFIANS."—The Cleveland Leader of Thursday, says that the railroaders of Erie had another pow-wow on the 7th, a great indignation meeting at the Court House, where speeches and swearing by the celebrated LOWRY, were the order of the evening. He advises a general ripping up of rails, and extermination of the roads which run through the city, and the excitement seems to give serious apprehensions of evil times again for the Lake Shore Roads.

☞ The Sentinel, which defended Ann Wheeler, disposes of David Bonham, by turning up its nose and sneering at him.—News of Saturday.

The Sentinel neither "defended Ann Wheeler," nor does it "sneer" at David Bonham. On the contrary, we always characterized the killing of Lacy by Ann Wheeler as a cold-blooded and indefensible murder, which should have sent the perpetrator to State Prison for life. As to Ann, so far from "sneering at him," we think he is fully and congenially employed, just now, defending the "Border Ruffian," and corresponding for the News. "Birds of a feather," &c.

THE REPUBLICAN PRESS.—The News of Saturday speaks of the Free Democrat as being "one of the few Republican papers that has advocated sticking to the Republican and avoiding K. N. principles." Every Republican paper in this State (with a single exception) has always advocated the same thing. The Free Democrat, so far from being singular in this respect, does but concur with its Republican contemporaries.

SUICIDE IN THE STATE PRISON.—HENRY MANEL, a German Lawyer, residing at Racine, was convicted there a few days since of manslaughter and sentenced to the State Prison for 14 years. He was taken thither on the 6th instant, and on the 8th committed suicide, by hanging himself with his handkerchief on the cell door. MANEL was a man of good education and stood fair in the community, till he committed the crime, for which he was sent to State Prison.

☞ The article which we credited to the Horicon Argus, in relation to resistance by the Dodge Co. Supervisors to the division of the County, should have been credited to the Beaver Dam Republican.

A KNOW-NOTHING DOCTOR.—At the National Medical Convention, in session at Detroit, a Dr. Gross, of Kentucky, offered a resolution recommending the profession to "discontinue the editing of foreign writings!"

The Assassins of Sheriff Jones.

We published yesterday morning the announcement that Sheriff Jones, who was shot by some disciple of Beecher, had died.

Perhaps the military Captain of the Sentinel who was educated for war, is too modest to claim the credit which is really due him, and therefore omits to mention, in this connection, his own contributions toward consummating this cowardly and foul murder.

The readers of the Sentinel will recollect that soon after Beecher's sermon on the Shanghai mount, where the male barnyard fowl is said to fight the best, in which he said the name Killum was ominous in connection with a Sharpes' Rifle, the Captain-General of the Sentinel, in imitation of this Beecher, D. D., decollocdogot a Sharpe's Rifle up in the Sentinel office, and there presented it to Mr. ——, who had been for a long time in the employ of the Sentinel, to carry down into Kansas. The ceremonies were very imposing, and the speech of Gen. King, as published in the Sentinel on that occasion, was such as we might expect from one educated and bred to the profession of arms.

* * * Perchance it may be demonstrated in time that one of the rifles donated by Gen. King did the deed. If not it was some other rifle donated in precisely the same spirit, and our General may well plume himself on having encouraged and abetted this diabolical murder. It is said by some that Jones was decided in this city. If this shall turn out to be so it inaugurates fitly by the gratification of those pious souls, who have been advocating a system of duties, which has led to the assassination of a former neighbor, who never did them any harm, and who assumed himself as a quiet orderly citizen should do under the gospel dispensation.

We take the above sample paragraphs from a long article in Saturday's News, abounding in crocodile tears over the death of Sheriff Jones, in affected horror of the Sharpe Rifle contributions, but in very bitter and no doubt sincere personal denunciation of the editor of the Sentinel. It is really a pity to spoil so elaborately prepared an article, but it seems proper to remark:

1st. That Sheriff JONES, at the last accounts, was not yet dead and cannot, without considerable poetic license, be spoken of as "assassinated."

2nd. That the "editor of the Sentinel" had nothing to do with getting up the "Sharpe Rifle presentation" to Mr. E. G. RIPLEY, our Free Democrat—it being a free-will offering from his brother Typos—that the "ceremonies" were anything but "imposing;" and that no speech of ours was "published in the Sentinel on that occasion."

3rd. That as neither of the "rifles donated by the editor of the Sentinel" has yet left the State, the chances are that "the deed" was not done by "one of them"—unless, indeed, they have an uncommonly long range and fine sight.

These trifling facts militate somewhat with the News' fictions, but need not discourage it from pursuing the subject. By the way, do we owe the article in question to the Kansas editor of the News, DAVID BONHAM, and is it he who so deeply regrets "the assassination of a former neighbor, who never did him any harm, and deemed himself as a quiet, orderly citizen should do, under the gospel dispensation!"

PRESIDENTIAL.—The Washington Sentinel contains the following paragraph:

"Ever since the time (the Ostend conference) to the present, Franklin Pierce has instigated and invented the most insidious and disreputable attacks upon Mr. Buchanan, not only through his own mouth-piece, but even in his own conversations. We make this charge: that Gen. Pierce has told delegates to the national convention, that if he did not get the nomination himself, no northern man should have it—clearly pointing to Mr. Buchanan, who, except Judge Douglas, is the only "northern man" spoken of, and if report be true, the relations of the latter are greatly changed towards the administration."

It has been clear for a long time, say the N. Y. Times, that the relations of the administration to Mr. Buchanan were anything but friendly, and our advices from Washington indicate that the war upon him has been successful. The President and Judge Douglas have united their forces against him as common enemy. The attempt will first be made to renominate Gen. Pierce; if that fails, Douglas will be tried, and if neither succeed, then a southern candidate, probably Hunter will be brought forward.

A HINT FOR FLOUR MANUFACTURERS.—The Albany Evening Journal of the 6th instant contains the following suggestive paragraph:

An example of the old saying that "cheating never pays" is seen in our Gain Trade. To several German States which used to buy wheat flour of us, little is now shipped but Rye; and many of the Continental European dealers now prefer to buy our wheat and grind it themselves, who used to import American flour. The reason is the deception practiced in packing off the poor grades of flour as superfine" and "extra," or in mixing an inferior with a superior article. Some of the flour shipped from abroad mustiness "grown mouldy" has proved totally unfit for human food. The consequences of the distrust that created abroad of our Millers and Flour Merchants, fall, as they should, most heavily on the one who have contrived most the cheating.

EGYPT WAKING UP.—A subscription to the stock of the Isthmus of Suez Canal, opened in Egypt, has developed interesting facts. Forty-five millions of francs was reserved for the Land of the Pharaohs. The Viceroy had the privilege of the first sub-cription, and he took all save fifteen millions. The balance was entirely taken up in the course of three days, and without appeal to the public. The Khedive has assigned to Cairo, have subscribed by fifty different individuals, the majority of whom were of the stock of the Pyramid-builders.

NEW PATENTS.—Among the patents recently issued are the following:

John Reiley, of Heart Prairie, Wis., for improvement in harvest fingers.

George Esterly, of same place, for improvement in cultivators.

George Esterly, of same place, for improvement in grass harvesters. Patented June 27, 1854.

GEOGRAPHICAL PRIZES.—The Geographical Society at Paris, at its annual meeting for 1856, awarded its prize for the most important discovery during the last year to Dr. Heinrich Barth. The next prize, of a golden medal, was adjudged to Mr. E. George Squier, of the United States, for his Central American researches.

PIERCE COUNTY.—It is doubtful whether any tract of land of its size in the Northwest possesses so many advantages for settlement as Pierce county. It has a water front of forty-eight miles, (forty on the Mississippi, and eight on the St. Croix); is watered by six streams, which afford capital mill power for almost every neighborhood; is well timbered, and, for all the purposes of agriculture, is unsurpassed anywhere.—The streams of which we speak are some of them adapted to running the machinery of large manufactories, and such manufactories will soon be needed and built; they will cause villages to spring up, which will create a home market, and make the surrounding country prosperous.—Prescott Transcript.

DROWNED IN THE DELLS.—Jacob Weaver, commonly known as Dutch Jake, an old raftsman, was drowned in the Dells last Friday, by being thrown from the raft by an oar which caught in a whirl. His body has not yet been found. We understand that he was a resident of Grand Rapids.

ANOTHER !—An Irishman, whose name we have not learned, was drowned on the same day, at the head of the Dells, by the tipping over of a canoe.

STILL ANOTHER ! !—We hear that on the same day a man was drowned at the mouth of the Lemonweir, about eight miles above this place. We have not learned the particulars.—Wisconsin Mirror, May 9.

SMASH-UP.—We hear that there was a grand smash-up in the Dells Friday. The water was high, and rising rapidly. Three rafts got in together, struck each other, and the rocks on each side, and were dashed to pieces. The crews of two saved themselves by jumping upon the rocks, and that of the other escaped on the wreck.—Wisconsin Mirror, May 7.

SURVEY OF THE LAKES.—We understand that the War Department have ordered Lieut. Col. Kearney, of the Lighthouse Board, and Captain Mead, now in charge of the Topographical Survey of Chesapeake and Delaware Bays, to duty in this city, in charge of the survey of the North-western Lakes, vice Capt. Macomb and Lieut. Reynolds, transferred. Col. Kearney is well known as a resident in former years among us, as the predecessor of Captain Macomb.—Detroit Free Press, 8th.

Men and Things in Gotham.

NEW YORK, May 6, 1856.

Messrs. Editors:—What is poetically known, as the prettiest, merriest day of all the year, has just been ushered in to us, and we are beginning to get nicely over the infliction. The day when, gushing creatures were wont to go frantically about May poles, with auburn hair of course, streaming in the breeze, or woke up at a very barbarous and unhappy hour to be chosen Queens of the morning, so far as Gotham is concerned, got fearfully knocked in the head, by that mischievous fellow who invented moving. On this day here, one sees but the flowers of the family, blooming mid dust, distraction, and chaotic ruins, and the only May poles, those attached to every available vehicle, spanning here and there a dusty household gods. An obscene corner of a daily paper may retail to you faculties that a few hope, perhaps against it, to preserve and hand down to the future, the festivities of the past; for there you may see, if a diligent reader, that the denizens of some romantic city institute of learning, adapted to the wants of modern female dom, intend to go "a Maying!" a poetic idea, worthy of a more general embodiment. I know of nothing more eminently principled and loveliving in to friendney than this day, which perhaps, is the reason it is kept up with a vigor worthy of a better cause. Custom has made it on this occasion a sacred duty, for everybody to clean away the year's dirt of everybody else's, and circumstances elevate the subordinate into a horde of demons the despot, tending to shake the very basis of our society. The pathetic and agonizing features of the event are too numerous to describe, but are viewed largely by those compelled to gaze hourly on the wreck of matter and the crash of things. But as time brings all things to an end and heals with all, so let us fervently hope that the gentle opiate of every grief, brings balm at last to those rudled ones, male and female, who lost their temper, and had their feelings wounded on the 1st of May.

Death has made a most visible gap in our community within the past week, and even the serried ranks of legions here have not closed over the place and caused one to forget the inroad of the full destroyer. Rear. E. Kirby Smith's last battled the City, for he was too useful a man to lose, one more indefatigable, more upright and honest, we have not had among our public men: he combined too, with his character of a business man, the rarest excellencies of the gentleman and scholar; he had much to do, his hands were full to the last, but he went and left behind much the world expected him to do, knowing he would do it well. A still greater shock was felt when without any preparation, it was announced that the gifted "Hoffman," al o had departed. Bright light of the Bench and Bar, and social gathering, there was indeed unusual darkness when his brilliant flame went out. Commencing his career in the service of his country, he won honors even a boy, and what his after success was in a far different profession, how he gained eminence and fame, and what is far higher and more satisfactory, "troops of friends," all the world knows. He was one of the few, who being seen for the first time was loved by the stranger; those musical periods, gushing forth from a heart warm as a woman's, and beautified by a well toted brain and a rich glowing fancy, stole over the heart with the spell of witchery and completely won the listener over to that plain face, beaming with the old man's electric eloquence. Yesterday the earth received all there was left of him, and his pall bearers included such men as Gen. Scott, Bishop Potter, Moses H. Grinnell, Chas. King, Emmet, Anthon and others, while crowds of genuine mourners paid their last respects to the memory of a man universally beloved. Boston, on Sunday, lost an eminent citizen in the person of the distinguished Dr. John Warren, after a short illness; he was nearly 80 years of age, and though aged like the Prophet, on her starboard side, about the middle. All her upper berths, lower guards, wheel, &c., were smashed in, and the Effie Afton was in instantly a complete wreck. The stern caught, by some means, holding the boat fast against the pier; otherwise nine-tenths of those on board must have met with instant death.

The officers and crew of the Hamburg, Grace Darling and Carson immediately went to the assistance of the unfortunate boat, and through their exertions, and the calm and strenuous efforts of the officers of the Effie Afton, nearly every one on board was saved.

EFFIE AFTON ON FIRE.

But a few minutes elapsed after the smash, when the cry of Fire! rang through the boat, adding to the horrors of the terrible scene. The fire spread with great rapidity, enveloping the sinking steamer in flames and in twenty minutes the Effie Afton was no more. The J. D. Carson, Vienna and other boats, which had anchored near the wreck, caught fire, and cutting their cables, were compelled to leave the scene of danger.

ESCAPE OF THE PASSENGERS.

There was abundance of time and opportunity for every one aboard to have escaped. Steamers were anchored by the side of the wreck, with planks reaching to her guards; and there was a ready means of escape by means of the Bridge, of which many availed themselves. But the screams of the women and children, the hurrying to and fro of the men in a bewildered state of mind, the bellowing and howling of the cattle on board, added to the roaring of the waters and the real dangers of the scene, caused a state of the greatest confusion. In this confusion it is fearful that some lives were lost, though it is not definitely known to have been so. A common report says, that five men were drowned. It is certain that some men fell overboard, or were knocked into the water by the falling timbers; and the most experienced boatmen say, that it would be utterly impossible to save them if such were the case.

RAILROAD BRIDGE ON FIRE.

The flames from the burning steamer, shooting upward, communicated fire to the Rock Island Railroad Bridge, and soon it was one sheet of flame from pier to pier, being the span East of the Draw. The timbers burned fiercely, and the Bridge mingled its fires with those of its victim. When the flames of the Afton raged the fiercest, the Bridge fell, and the scene was most terrible. The burning cattle on the lower deck of the steamer, uttering dismal cries of pain—horses and mules, floating in the river, shrieking with pain—dogs chained to the hurricane deck howling hideously—all of the bells ringing and the whistles screaming—the loud hurrahs! of the steamboat men, and the involuntary cries of wonder from the spectators—the women of Davenport ringing dinner bells and waving their handkerchiefs and bonnets—mingling with the loud crash of falling timbers; and overshadowing all, the dense volumes of smoke rolling up and over in black masses, illuminated by thickly flying fire-brands and sparks—all of this made the scene of the most exciting interest.

LOSS OF THE EFFIE AFTON.

The Effie Afton is said to have been one of the best boats, and most complete in all her arrangements ever built on the Ohio River. It was heavily laden with glass, iron, groceries from St. Louis, and live stock, in all about 250 and 300 tons. The aggregate loss is stated to be between $100,000 and $125,000. The steamer was valued at $50,000. Undoubtedly, a large quantity of freight on board this ill fated steamer was destined for this port, though we have no particulars.

A NEW PASSAGE.

The burning of the eastern span of the Bridge very much lessens the danger of crossing this "Hell Gate." A passage of 300 feet is now afforded, and although great care and circumspection is still necessary, the passage is comparatively safe. No one rejoices at the destruction of the property, but all steamboatmen and others interested in the free navigation of the Mississippi, feel that a great danger has been providentially partially removed. It is to be hoped that the Directors of the Company will now allow their better judgment to prevail, and remove the remaining obstructions. The fact that, during the short time since navigation commenced this spring, the loss sustained by the stopping in consequence of the obstruction cannot fall short of one hundred thousand dollars, must be taken as positive proof that the structure is where it should not be, and where it cannot, in justice, any longer remain than the time required by the owners to remove it. It has been built in the wrong place.—Galena Advertiser, May 8th.

SALE OF MILL PROPERTY.—Messrs. Morris & Brindley, of this city, have recently sold their steam saw mill and property adjoining, situated on Sturgeon Bay, Door Co., to Harvey Woodruff & Co., of Pecatonica, Illinois, for $19,000.—Green Bay Advocate.

Milwaukee University. Extract from the Minutes of Presbytery.

MILWAUKEE, May 10, 1856.

Editors Milwaukee Sentinel:

DEAR SIRS:—Please give the following a place in the Sentinel and oblige,

Yours, &c.,
S. H. BARTEAU.

For the Sentinel.

Milwaukee University.

The Presbytery of Milwaukee, being in session at Oconomowoc, May 5th, 1856, took the following action:

Rev. S. G. SPEES having made statements respecting the University of Milwaukee, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted as expressive of the views of Presbytery upon the subject.

Resolved, That Presbytery have listened with satisfaction and pleasure to the statements which have been made with respect to the past history, the present condition, and the future prosperity of the University of Milwaukee.

Resolved, That we regard the present faculty of this institution, consisting of a Chancellor, the Rev. C. Wiley, D. D., two Professors, and a Principal of the Preparatory Department, as an able and efficient one, and worthy of the confidence and patronage of the public.

Resolved, That we cordially recommend this institution to the friends of education throughout the state, and more especially to the churches under our care, believing that the discipline therein instituted, the course of instruction therein enjoyed, in both the Preparatory and Collegiate Departments, and the moral and religious influence therein exerted, will compare favorably with other kindred institutions, while its location, in the principal city in the state, furnishes it with advantages enjoyed by no other institution in this commonwealth.

A true extract from the minutes.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Error Corrected—The Late Dr. Beaumont.

GREEN BAY, May 4, 1856.

Messrs. Editors:—"Honor to whom honor is due" is a good old maxim, the truth of which you are willing to admit, I suppose; and on the strength of the supposition I write to correct an erroneous impression conveyed by your New York correspondent in her letter of April 25th, concerning "the man who eat through a hole in his side." She states that that "identical individual is stopping at French's Hotel and the Medical world is in ecstacy, and intends operating on him immediately for the benefit of science.

She says he was shot at Mackinac in 1816, and expresses much surprise that the "benighted people of that place never attended to the subject." Now those benighted people were not so very benighted after all, and the subject was attended to. Dr. Wm. Beaumont, then surgeon in the U. S. Army, was stationed at Mackinac at the time the man (Alexis St. Martin) was shot, which was on the 6th of June, 1822, and saw him in twenty-five or thirty minutes after the accident occurred. It was he who healed the wound and saved the man's life, after a careful attendance of three years; and then, after his perfect restoration to health, commenced a series of experiments, which were published in 1833 under the title of "Beaumont's Physiology and Experiments," and shortly after republished in Great Britain, France and Germany. This work was copied extensively by all the writers on Physiology, and was considered the most important work ever published on that subject. A new edition was issued in 1846 by Chauncey Goodrich of Burlington, Vt., and is well known to the Medical Profession of this country, the members of which, I am sure, have no wish to rob a departed brother of the honor which belongs to his memory.

FORT ATKINSON, WIS., May 9, 1856.

Messrs. Editors:—A young man, son of Dea't. J. L. Whitney, of this place left Fort Atkinson village on Tuesday night last, to search for a cow in the woods, and since then has not been heard from—search has been made for him in the woods, the whole community has been rallied and no intelligence.

He was by years of age—had on a grey coat and pants—fancy satin vest, black—and an old white colored hat. A general sadness prevails the whole community.

Please publish the above and confer a great favor upon the afflicted family, and request city papers to copy. Any person seeing or hearing of him, will please communicate to the father.

Michigan and Kansas.

A Correspondent of the Detroit Tribune draws the following forcible comparison between the early history of Michigan, and the present difficulties in Kansas:

The error stands thus: In 1835 the people of Michigan organized and put in actual operation a State government, without authority from Congress; and, as the Supreme Court have held, in disregard of the power of Congress. The federal government, with General Jackson at its head, and Roger B Taney, now Chief Justice of the United States, and Lewis Cass, now Senator from Michigan, in his cabinet, did not interfere with it, but permitted it to continue. No body spoke of it as being an "insurrectionary" government, except John C. Calhoun. He assumed it to be what Pierce assumes the government of Kansas to be "insurrectionary." The debates show this, while they also show that Calhoun held the doctrine. But even he, disloyal as he was, did not go so far as to recommend the employment of an armed force to put it down—such a thing which Pierce, a Northern man, (O, Heaven, that the free North should be thus disgraced!) has recommended and ordered to be done in Kansas, even before any attempt was made to put the State government in operation!

Proud, Free, wealthy, numerous and powerful North! what are your feelings at seeing yourselves thus dishonored by one of your own sons? Are we not all ashamed of him?—and are we not ashamed that we have furnished mothers, and birth-places, and cradles to such traitors as Cushing and Douglass?—the former born within sight of Bunker's Hill, and the latter in the State which Ethan Allen and Seth Warner rescued from the revolted ambition of the provincial Governors of New York and New Hampshire. We are obliged to look to the example of Andrew Jackson, a man of Southern birth, and himself a slave holder, as a rebuke to the sordid, supple and servile conduct of our own flesh and blood! Is it not time the race of doughfaces was "crushed out" and "subdued?"—time that pro-slavery flunkeyism was made dishonorable and contemptible, and that the man who opens his lips in favor of the extension of slavery, should be excluded not only from all places of public trust, but from all respect of his fellow-citizens?

DEATH OF DR. C. A. HALL.—Died, this morning, at Lake Side, after a painful illness of two weeks, Dr. CHAUNCY A. HALL, recently of Hartford, Conn., in the forty-sixth year of his age.

Dr. Hall had lately become connected with the Hydropathic Hospital, at this place, and on his way hither to assume the medical charge of the institution, contracted a severe cold, which, resulting in inflamation of the lungs, terminated his life.

The Doctor was for many years widely and favorably known as the Medical Superintendent of Round Hill Water Cure, at Northampton, Mass., where he had acquired a high professional reputation, and his urbanity and kindness endeared him to all who made his acquaintance.

Several of the medical faculty of this city were unremitting in their attentions to him during his sickness; and all that kind care of his professional friends, and the earnest and devoted watching of an affectionate brother could avail to mitigate his sufferings, were extended until life became extinct. During his illness he exhibited the utmost composure of mind, and while evidently suffering the most intense physical pain, his regard for those who were administering to his to his comfort, seemed paramount to every other consideration, and his gentleness and excellence continued until the end.

The death of Dr. Hall is a great loss to this community where he had so recently taken up his abode, and to his wife and son this dispensation of Providence must be deeply afflicting.—Madison Argus.

FRUIT PROSPECTS IN KENTUCKY.—We do not think we overstate the amount, when we say that fully one-half of the peach trees in this county are killed. After inquiries, we can learn of but one bloom having been seen in the county. The apple trees are putting forth an abundance for a full crop. Plum and cherry trees have also put forth bloom sufficient to warrant the expectation of a good crop. Grape vines have suffered very much. Very many are killed to the ground, and generally all of last year's growth is dead.—Shelby News.

RAILROAD ARRANGEMENTS.—The Racine Democrat states that an arrangement has been made between the Lake Shore and the Racine & Miss. Railroad Companies to the following effect:

Cars loaded with freight will be run from and to all points on each road, without change or delay, and at precisely the same rates as if it was one road. Tickets are to be sold at all stations on the several roads to all stations on both, and in all other respects the arrangement secures to the public every possible advantage and accommodation that of continuous road could afford. A joint tariff has also been agreed upon, under which wheat can be sent to Freeport, Beloit, Delavan, Elkhorn, Burlington, and all other points on the Racine and Mississippi Railroad, direct to Milwaukee in the same cars, at not exceeding two cents per bushel more than to Racine, and all other kinds of grain in proportion. Thus wheat will be taken from Delavan to Milwaukee at not exceeding eight cents per bushel, and in 5 hours time, and from other stations at corresponding rates and time. This arrangement will be welcomed not only by our own citizens, but by all of the communities on the line of our Western road.

The above arrangement will doubtless bring a large amount of produce to this city by the Lake Shore route, until the completion of the Milwaukee & Beloit R. R.

The same paper adds:

At a full meeting of the Board of Directors of the Racine and Mississippi Railroad Company held last week, at which the stockholders of the whole line were represented, the above named arrangement was agreed upon between the parties, and at the same time it was unanimously decided that no connections or arrangements whatever should be made with any roads between Freeport and Racine running to Lake Michigan south of Racine, and such agreement forms a part of the above arrangement.

We are sorry to see this evidence of illiberality on the part of the R. & M. R. R., and cannot believe that it will be persisted in.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD.—We learn from Messrs. Graham & Co., the contractors on this road, that the work is progressing favorably.—Most of the work between the State line and Geneva is completed. All that remains is to lay the iron and ballast the track, so that the Geneva cars may look out for the snort of the locomotives about the 1st of next month. Arrangements have been made by which the bonds of the road are negotiated for talls enough to lay the track from Geneva to Jefferson—the iron to be delivered as soon as the road is finished to Geneva.

Nothing is more that the road will be finished to this point as soon as possible; the energy of Graham & Co., is a sufficient guarantee of that fact.—Whitewater Gazette.

LICENSES AT MADISON.—The Madison Common Council have passed an ordinance providing for issuing licenses to liquor saloons, &c., at $100 each.

RELIEF.—The Portuguese in New York have contributed $2000 to purchase breadstuffs in the Cape de Verde Islands.

THEATRE.—There was a very full house at the Theatre on Saturday night, to witness the performance of "Pizarro." Tonight, Miss Denin makes her 4th appearance in the tragedy of Fazio, taking the part of Bianca, Mr. Jeffreys that of Fazio.

The programme also includes the farce of the Rival Pages, in which Miss Denin and Miss E. Thorne play the parts of those interesting youths.

The Company has Guy Mannering in rehearsal.

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN LAND AGENCY.—We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Howell & Co., of Prairie du Chien. That growing town is one, and we long, two young men seldom are to spare—Mr. Homer Merrill and Mr. N. A. Millard. The former is favorably known to the business public, from his connection with the Wis. M. & F. Ins. Co. and State Bank, and the latter as a lawyer, and business partner of E. D. Holton, Esq., now Pres't of the Farmer's and Miller's Bank; and both have hosts of friends who wish them well wherever they go.

New Publications.

SALAD FOR THE SOCIAL, by the author of "Salad for the Solitary," De Witt & Davenport, N. Y., Publishers.

A couple of years ago and over, we acknowledged the receipt of the first work of this author, the "Salad for the Solitary," and enjoyed many a half hour of pleasant reading in its varied pages. We found it a charming volume, full of good things for every mood, collected and remarked upon by a shrewd observer and quaint writer, till one unlucky day, a fellow passenger on board an ocean steamer lost it overboard, and it was swept away in the Gulf Stream. We possess and prize another copy, however, and we welcome the "Salad for the Social," as a companion for its "Solitary" predecessor.

A DEFENCE OF THE AMERICAN POLICY, as opposed to the encroachments of Foreign Influence, &c., by Hon. Thos. R. H. Whiting, M. C., De Witt & Davenport, Publishers.

This book, the publishers say, is a thorough and manly exposition of "American" principles, and a complete vindication from the charge, so often brought against the cause by its enemies, of narrowness and bigotry. If so, it must be a very valuable book to "the order" of Know Nothings, and we wish them joy of it. The writer is one of the inglorious few who held out, in Congress, and labored against the election of Banks, as Speaker.

H. W. ANGEL, at the Post Office News Depot, has the above for sale.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Saturday afternoon, a man named Cassidy, from Waukesha, a laborer, attempted to get upon one of the freight trains of the Mil. & Miss R. R., when it was in motion, and just in front of the passenger depot, and fell, two wheels passing over his leg above the ancle, mangling the flesh, and crushing the bones to splinters. The poor fellow was taken into the baggage room, where he bled profusely. We doubt whether he can recover.

THROUGH STRAIGHT CUT.—The Steam Tug Gordon Grant towed the schooner Virginia Purdy, of some 250 tons, in ballast, out through the Straight Cut on saturday morning. Push on the good work, Messrs Contractors!

WATER POWER FOR SALE.—See the advertisement of Water Power for sale at Depere, at the last dam and lock of the Improvement Company. It is a capital location for manufacturing business, and the power one of the finest in the country.

LAUNCH.—The staunch schooner Rose Donovan, of about 180 tons, built by Mr. Orr for V. Loomis, for the lumber trade, was launched handsomely on Saturday afternoon, with her masts standing. She is named for a bright little girl, whose eyes danced as they saw the vessel launch the water,—a daughter of Mr. O. G. Dotman, of the 5th Ward.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH.—The Rev. Mr. MITER, so long the pastor of this Church, has been compelled, by failing health, to resign his arduous charge. A unanimous call has been tendered to the Rev. Mr. HUMPHREY, of Racine, to fill the vacancy thus created.

FIRE DEPARTMENT INSPECTION.—See the notice of Chief Engineer Goodnow, of the Annual Inspection of the Fire Department. There will doubtless be a fine show on Tuesday next.

ICE CREAM.—EMERY announces that interesting event—the opening of his Ice Cream Saloon for the season.

I. O. O. F.—The attention of the members of Milwaukee Lodge No. 2 is invited to the notice in our advertising columns, calling a special meeting.

MILITARY.—The Light Guard are notified to muster at their Armory this afternoon for Parade and Drill.

THE NEW HALL HOUSE.

ICE CREAMS!
NEXT to the re-folding of the Milwaukeeans over the erection of the New Hall House is the little circumstance of EMERY'S CONFECTIONERY being close by. Whether Emery's shop is to be considered the stepping stone to this enterprise is immaterial. There's no telling what one may do for a street or city, and the applying for erecting the neat edifice known as Emery's Building was pretty much used up by fire, and the particular attaches nil of rich corners to these old rocks in Milwaukee, is proverbial, making it difficult to procure one.

The public will please to consider Emery's Ice Cream Hall open for the season. may12-2d&3in

There is but little smoke or noise attending the discharge, at the same time the ball is thrown with sufficient force to do great execution. VOLUME XI. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL MONDAY MORNING, MAY 12, 1856. NEW SERIES

Ladies' Boots.

And just to put you on your guard,
I'll give you short and brief,
A small hotel experience,
Which filled my heart with grief.

Last summer at the Clarendon,
I stopped a week or more,
And marked two "hooties" every morn,
Before my neighbor's door.

Two boots well patent-leather tips—
Two boots which seemed to say,
"An angel trots around us so!"
They stole my heart away

I saw the servant take 'em off.
With those of common mortals;
His soul was all on slipperies,
But mine was in the boots.

And often in my nightly dreams
They swept before my face,
A leggy procession out of theirs,
As flowers grow from a vase.

But ah! one morn I saw a sight
Which struck me like a stone—
Some other name was on the book;
Those boots were not alone!

A great tall pair of other boots,
Were standing by their side,
And oft they walked that afternoon,
And with them walked—a bride!

Enough! enough—invasion's near;
Love's tree bears bitter fruit;
Beware of beauty, friend of mine!
But oh! beware of boots!

—C. G. Leland.

CHARACTERISTICS OF A FRENCH LADY.—The French lady's characteristics are generally that she is unexceptionably shod—that she wears inimitable glores—that she has a toilet of two colours only, with a distracting way of wearing a shawl—that her manners are bewitching, full of small graces and delicately shaped coquetries, but never wanting in the nicest appreciation of external propriety, to which her flirtations are always subordinate—that she has a marvellous faculty of walking un-soiled through the dirty streets of Paris, and as marvellous a knack of holding up her skirts with one hand over her left hip; and that she has a supernatural preservation of youth, and a bewildering habit of mistaking her friend's husband for her own.

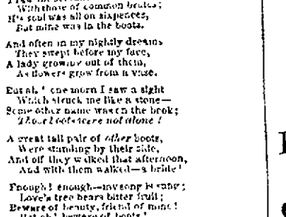
EVARTS'
PATENT SHINGLE MILL



EVARTS & BUTLER,
PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE SMOOTHNESS OF THE WORK WHICH GIVES it a Mill-saw quality, is produced by making the cut in the direction of the fibre of the wood.

The ease with which wood is worked in that direction gives a speed of execution; and the flexibility of the shingle which also relieves the saw, so that it may be pressed then on its edge, so as to cut very little of the wood.

The shingles now made with this mill still in this market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed shingles.

This mill is made entirely of iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.

LAKE VIEW WATER CURE!
NEAR CHICAGO, ILL.

HAVING retired from the charge of the "Lake Side Water Cure," at Madison, Wis., Doctor GROSS is happy to inform the public that he has leased for a term of years, the

BEAUTIFUL SUMMER RETREAT,

Formerly known as the LAKE VIEW HOUSE, situated five miles north of Chicago, on the Michigan, and a short distance from the Lake Shore Rail Road.

It is a commodious building, with Chicago Water and Plank Road, making one of the finest drives out of the city. The house is airy, and furnished in the best style, with accommodations for fifty guests and upwards. The building is heated throughout by steam and supplied with an abundance of pure water. There is a large hall attached to the wing of the building, which will be used for gymnastic and calisthenic exercises, for the benefit of ladies and children, &c., &c.
